

Rakhimova Marina Viktorovna (28.06.1970), Phd, assistant of the department of Medicinal Chemistry at National University of Pharmacy.

Scopus 6603756141

Publons AAG-8787-2019

Orcid 0000-0003-2454-7396

Google Scholar 9-9FWeQAAAAJ&hl

Graduated: National University of Pharmacy (1992).

Career: the pharmacist-intern of the trade department of the State Enterprise "Pharmacy" in Sevastopol (1992-1993), the senior laboratory assistant of the scientific and methodological laboratory for the quality control of medicines (1993-1994), the senior laboratory assistant of the department of pharmaceutical chemistry (1994), the post-graduate student of the pharmaceutical chemistry department (1994-1997); Assistant of the Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry (1995-1998); Assistant of the Department of Toxicological Chemistry (1998), Senior Lecturer of the Department of Pharmaceutical Analysis and Pharmacognosy of the IPKSF (1999-2001), Senior Lecturer of the Department of Inorganic Chemistry (2001), Rehabilitator of the Kharkov Center for the Rehabilitation of Young People with Disabilities and Their Families "Right of Choice" (2014), assistant of the Department of Medical Chemistry (2017-2020), dotsant of the Department of Medical Chemistry (since 2020).

PhD thesis: "Synthesis and study of pharmacological activity of derivatives of diaryl (dialkyl) amides of malonic acids" (1998).

Scientific research: The purposeful search of the new biologically active substances with anticonvulsant action and determination of the relation "structure-activity" among the derivatives of diaryl alkyl amides of malonic acids.

Scientific and methodological achievements: 30 scientific papers, among them: 12 scientific articles in the specialized editions, 3 deposited articles in the State Public Scientific Technical Library of Ukraine, 12 theses of the reports at scientific and practical conferences, 1 methodical recommendations.

Taught subjects:
pharmaceutical chemistry.